Couples relax and enjoy the atmosphere

Tuxedos, evening gowns, filet mignon, and perhaps an early morning breakfast each of these were only a part of the experience of "Color My World," the 1977 Junior-Senior Prom. For many juniors, however, the experience began weeks before. Painting rainbows, hanging colored crepe paper, selecting a band . . . these highlighted the evening even more.

For seniors, perhaps, the evening marked the last time they would congregate as a class before commencement, but the atmosphere was not one of sadness. It was one of genuine friendship. Moreover, there was an air of respect for tradition—a tradition built, enhanced, and lived at F. T. S.

Juniors Stage

On the evening of October 20, 1977, an enthusiastic audience packed the gym. Excitement and suspense reigned o'er the gathering. It was the final night of the 1978 Miss FTS Contest!

Throughout the evening, the audience stirred impatiently as the judges deliberated their decisions. In the interim, the lovely vivacious Helen Huske was crowned Miss Congeniality by John Rowell, chairman of this junior class project.

As the tension mounted in the gym, the backstage chatter began to cease. In room 38, twenty nervous girls awaited the judges' decision. Finally, Mrs. Blackmon, the pageant's devoted faculty sponsor, entered the room and announced the judges' decree. Minutes later, Susan Mathis walked out onto the stage—this time as Miss FTS 1978.

A Blazing Bonfire Highlights

The spirit of '78 reached a climactic glow during Homecoming week. Each day's activities generated a flame of anticipation throughout our student body. These activities included honoring two special guys with the titles of "Mr. Legs" and "Mr. Irresistible." Slogans of "crunch 'em" and "lick 'em" lined the halls as we celebrated the candy theme. The generation day, 50's day, and blue and white day gave each student an opportunity to show their sparks of spirit. On Homecoming Eve, the "best-ever bonfire" warmed the student body with the unique Bulldog enthusiasm. The flames of anticipation developed into a fire of spirit as Homecoming Day arrived and students participated in the H-Y cavalcade.

That night, excitement was in the air as the band played, Scottish Dancers performed and alumni reminisced. The evening reached its peak with the coronation of the queen and her court: second runner-up, Tammy Belle; first runner-up, Margaret Beck; and Homecoming Queen 1977 . . . Beth Newman.

-Scott, On the Setting Sun

So many men seem destined to settle for something small but I won't rest until I know I'll have it all . . . So don't ask where I'm going, but listen when I'm gone. And far away you'll hear me singing softly to the dawn. Rivers belong where they can ramble, eagles belong where they can fly. I've got to be where my spirit can run free . . . Got to find my corner of the sky

Seniors Excel

We forget that there is no hope of joy except in human relations. If I summon up all those memories that have left me an enduring savor, if I draw up the balance sheet of the hours in my life that have truly counted, surely I find only those that no wealth could have procured me. True riches cannot be bought.

... And Bring

The true harvest of my daily life is somewhat as intangible and indescribable as the tints of morning or evening. It is a little star-dust, caught, a segment of the rainbow which I have clutched.

—Henry David Thoreau

As the DAR Good Citizen, Ellen Lively feels that her involvement in school and community activities has helped her grow as an individual. Through her experiences in student council, student forum, the Miss FTS and Jr.-Sr. Steering Committees, the Latin Club, and the GAA, she has accomplished much as a student and as a potential leader of tomorrow's world. As an editorial writer for the Bulldog she has received needed experience in the evils of meeting deadlines and letting the press work for you. Above all, Ellen feels that her participation in the Fayetteville—Cumberland County Youth Council has given her a sense of self-reliance and responsibility that will long remain with her. She hopes to attend N. C. State University or UNC-Chapel Hill in the fall where she will major in political science or journalism to prepare for a career in law or journalism.

Don't get yourself in a rut, be different

Offense Leads the Way

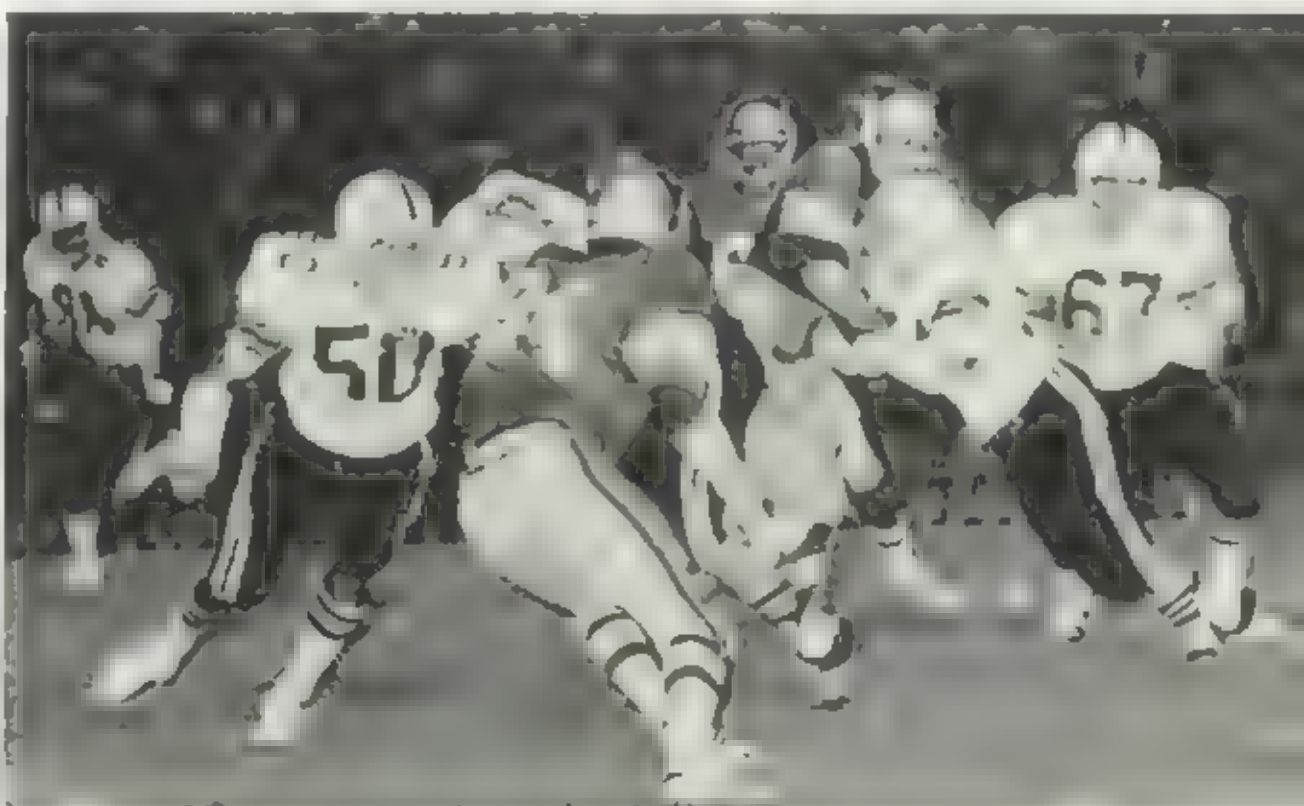

A strong offensive line composed of seniors Clifford Parker, Steven Poulos, Phillip Harris, Dan Barker, and David Creech combined with running backs Rudy Pope and Larry Johnson for a Terry Sanford rushing attack that averaged over 150 yards per game for the 1977 season. Quarterback Bobby Miller operated out of the veer offense usually sending Pope into the middle of the line and the speedy Johnson around the ends.

Miller complemented the potent ground game with precision passes to receivers Keith Turriff, Ronald Lee, and Jeff Willis. The Bulldogs averaged over 50 yards per game through the air.

Combination of both the running and passing games proved successful in the first half of the season, as the dogs got off to a quick 4-1 start. Hampered by numerous turnovers, the offense hit a streak of inconsistency which caused a 2-3 record in the second half of the season. Despite being picked for the conference cellar in pre-season polls, the offense averaged over 200 total yards and 18 points per game to pace the Bulldogs to a successful 6-4 season.

The iron curtain gets set to move in on the bite.

Labeled by The Fayetteville Observer as the "iron curtain" in pre-season assessments, the Terry Sanford defense held their opponents to an average of less than two touchdowns per contest for the first four games of the 1977 season before injuries to several key players weakened the Sanford corps. Alvin Waddell, a 6'0", 205 pound senior defensive lineman, was considered by most to be the rallying point of the team before he was lost for the season with a shoulder separation. He was named "Athlete of the Week" by The Fayetteville Times and garnered All-Conference honors despite playing in only three games before his injury. Others also provided strong play for the Bulldog defense. Mark Robinson and Sherman Henderson joined Waddell on the line, while Mike Ebrom and Charles Baker performed commendably at the end positions. Steve Lothspeich shone at the left linebacker position and Bobby Spicer headed the secondary with solid play at the safety position.

Though the team loses four of the aforementioned seven players due to graduation, the team members and its supporters expect an equally strong defense for the 1978 season.

Led by quarterback Richard Guy and a running attack featuring John McNeil, Steve Pantelakos, and Mark Vestal, the jayvee football team completed a winning season for the first time in over a decade. Other standouts included Bill Dukes and Mark Hoke, who anchored the line, and Scott Maloney and Jimmy Byrd as top receivers. Although finishing the season 5-4-1, their record wasn't indicative of the team's caliber of play, as they lost three games by a touchdown or less. The experience gained this year will prove valuable, as many players will be counted heavily upon in the 1978 season on a varsity team hit hard by graduation.

In their first year of competition, the freshman football team completed a winning season with a 4-1 record. Highlights included the double thrashing of Reid Ross 33-16 and 20-18 and also E. E. Smith 26-14 and 28-14. The only loss came in the hands of Lumberton 12-6.

Bulldog Twins Gain

The Terry Sanford Girls Tennis Team under the leadership of Coach Christine Cherry finished the season with a record of 17-1. The Bulldogs only loss was to Wilmington Hoggard early in the season. The Bulldogs later traveled to Wilmington and snapped the Vikings home winning streak at 58 matches. At the close of the regular season Lisa Monaco, Margit Monaco and Clare Thompson posted records of 18-0. Clare then went to the sectionals and advanced to the quarterfinals where she was defeated. The Monaco twins then teamed in doubles to win the sectionals and advance to the state competition. They then lifted their season record to 30-0 with a first place victory in the state championships. The Monaco twins were then named Players of the Year and Miss Cherry was named Coach of the Year.

Volleyball Teams

All three volleyball teams ended with winning seasons this year. Handling the coaching positions this year were Coaches Hondros and Hodges.

The Varsity team ended its season with a 10-8 record although Coach Hondros felt their record could have been better because they lost a couple of close games. Barbara Galbreath was named to the All Conference team as a result of her leadership and outstanding play throughout the year.

The Junior Varsity team left Coach Hondros with promising thoughts for the future by finishing its season with a 13-3 record. Co-captains Vivian Caldwell and Janet Johnson led the Junior Varsity team during the season.

The Ninth Grade team ended its season with a 6-3 record. Coach Hodges said the highlight of the season came when they beat Lumberton at Lumberton giving them their first defeat of the season. Leading the Ninth graders were Co-captains Maggie McDonald and Rose Getter.

Charles Gardner won the 155 class at the Pembroke Christmas Tournament in December. Bill Yeager serves as the new head coach. Added this year was a J. V. Wrestling team coached by Fred McDaniel. Ennis Wright taps in rebound

Led by seniors Ennis Wright and Keith Turriff, the Terry Sanford basketball team coasted to a 18-5 record and second place in the regular season. The highlight of the season was in December when the Bulldogs won the Holiday Classic Christmas Tournament. Eight city and county high schools participated in the competition. Playing at the guard position, junior Walker Worth was named Tournament MVP. Bobby Spicer and Bobby Miller rounded out the starting line-up with Boyd Holmes and Anthony Shaw coming off the bench to see extensive action in the quest for victory. The Bulldogs were small but scrappy as they defeated many bigger teams through hustle and quickness. Next year promises to be another good season as Coach Maness' Bulldogs lose only two starters to graduation.

If a J. V. record is any indication of the varsity action to come in the next few seasons, then Terry Sanford can look forward to contenders in the future. Led by Allen Smith and Carl Richardson, the J. V. team enjoyed a season of routing victories on the way to an 18-2 mark and double wins over city rivals Reid Ross and E. E. Smith. The only losses came in the hands of 71st and Westover. John McNeill, Scott Maloney and freshman Jeff Byrd rounded out a starting lineup that excelled in teamwork. Coach Chip Bishop wasn't hesitant in using his main reserves Richard Guy, Paul Johnson, Jimmy Byrd and Steve Pantelakos to come off the bench in critical situations. The J. V. players will have their work cut out for them next year though, as they will be competing for positions on a varsity team graduating only four seniors.

Girls Show Aspiration for

Hampered by inexperience and defensive problems, the girls varsity basketball team concluded a mediocre season. Bright spots included the excellent play of sophomores Sharon Smith and Shannon Quigg, teamed with the senior leadership of Barbara Galbreath and Dina McMullin. Junior Bridget Toomey completed the starting lineup. Juniors Angela Howard, Sue Maier, and Missy Autry saw extensive action off the bench as sophomores Anita Bass, Martha Tyson, Thersa Chao, and Sherry Talley completed the roster.

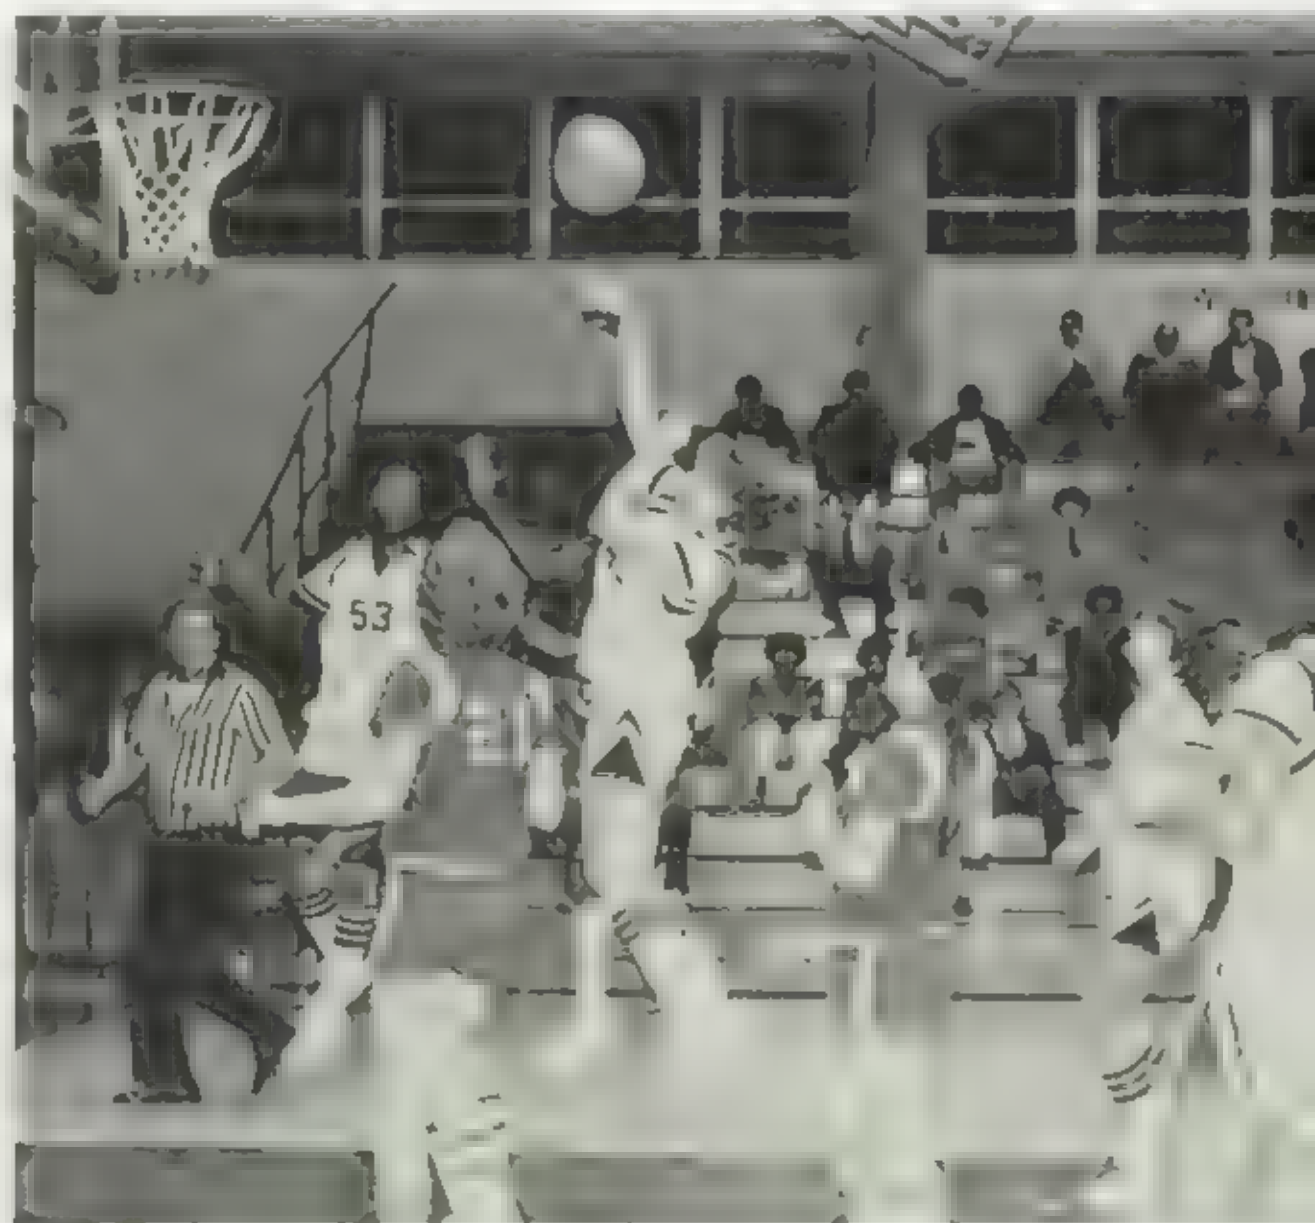

Coach Irene Hondros was quoted as saying, "Experience is the key to a successful team and hopefully our young players will be ready for next season." Indeed, with nine of eleven team members returning next season the girls anxiously look forward to a winning record in the future.

Under the leadership of Coach Gil Bowman, the Bulldogs posted a 7-9 record. Robin MacMillan, Peter Jordan, Ted Lepper and Phillip Harris represented Terry Sanford in singles while Danny Sappenfield and Robert Waitman represented the Bulldogs in doubles. Although the Bulldogs lost co-captains Robin MacMillan and Peter Jordan, the team promises to be tough with Phillip Harris, Ted Lepper, Robert Waitman, Danny Sappenfield and Gary Phillips returning.

Jeff Williams, Bobby Miller, and Boyd Holmes led the Bulldogs in the field while Bill Nader, Bobby Spicer, and Steve Carlin carried the majority of the batting load. Hurier John Cleetwood proved to be the ace of the pitching staff. Awards at the spring banquet went to Bill Nader, most valuable; Boyd Holmes, most improved; and Steve Carlin, coaches award. Hi-Y Launches a

Hi-Y launched a busy year of service by cleaning up the campus for the beginning of school. Their school enthusiasm carried them through the Homecoming cavalcade, which they sponsor every year. The Hi-Y really showed its "spirits" by sponsoring a spook house at the YMCA on Halloween night and the annual Hi-Y Christmas tree added merriment to all students near the holidays. Service and friendship are two key aspects of Tri-Hi-Y Activities in both of these areas, plus many others, make the Terry Sanford Tri-Hi-Y's year.

Concerning service, the club sponsors Little Sisters and works with Project SHARP (Saturday Housing Authority Recreation Program). As a service to the student body, Tri-Hi-Y also sponsors College Day.

Friendship is a much needed companion these days and Tri-Hi-Y has a special program in this category Secret Buddies. Each member gives little gifts to her "secret buddy" and a party is held during the year when each girl finds out who her "secret buddy" was.

Other undertakings of this Christian-oriented group include Yum Yum Shops for fund raising and participation in the homecoming cavalcade.

Scottish Dancers Experience

The Scottish Dancers have become a tradition here at Terry Sanford. Not only do they perform at school events such as Homecoming, the Fine Arts Festival, and assemblies, but they also represent the school at various area functions and in several competitions. Keywanettes Grow Keywanettes really showed their school and community spirit this year through a number of activities. Keywanettes started the year by helping the Key Club with campus cleaning. During Halloween, the Keywanettes went trick-or-treating for UNICEF. In Christmas caroling at a nursing home and decorating the V. A. hospital, Keywanettes helped to spread Christmas cheer to the less fortunate. Keywanettes also spread year round joy to their "Little Sisters" through monthly activities and visits. On the lighter side, Keywanettes had fun in the homecoming cavalcade and in sponsoring a Sadie Hawkins dance. Happy in both work and play, the Keywanettes had a great year.

Bulldog Keeps Students Informed.

The Editors of THE BULLDOG are Editor, Ann Parker, Features, Lynette Maxwell; Editorial, Karen Fisher, Business Manager, Debbie Short; and not pictured are Creative Arts, Mary Reading, and Sports, Clinton Weaver.

Sponsor Mrs. Grady and Karen Fisher seem pleased with a job well done.

The 1977-78 BULLDOG staff has creative individual interests

The BULLDOG is Terry Sanford's monthly newspaper which is published by the Journalism class and is advised by Mrs. Grady. Its purpose is to report and comment on the various happenings around FTS. It also carries jokes, poems, articles, editorials, features, and sports reports. The staff sells ads to finance the publication.

Lafamac Entertains

In the Lafamac room, things usually run smoothly, but about a week before a DEAD LINE chaos breaks out. Picture croppers, grease pencils, and layout sheets are strewn about. Staffers run helter-skelter in a mad race to take last minute pictures. It takes an old pro like advisor Helen Mask to keep smiling through it all and to keep the staff organized. When the deadlines finally pass, the Lafamac Staff sighs with relief and anxiously awaits the return of the printed annuals.

1978 Brings Middle

Serving as an aid in directing and supervising the affairs of the Fayetteville City Schools, Dr. Max Abbott, Superintendent of Schools, and his assistants have served the schools both faithfully and skillfully. Their aim—to broaden the field of education by preparing students to become better leaders of tomorrow—has been conscientiously followed and carried out. Dr. Abbott and five assistant superintendents and the members of the school board meet monthly to monitor school policy and make new policy decisions when needed.

In the fall of 1977, the two new Middle Schools, Hillcrest and Edgewood, (grades 6-8), were opened. And the Senior High Schools expanded to include grades 9-12.

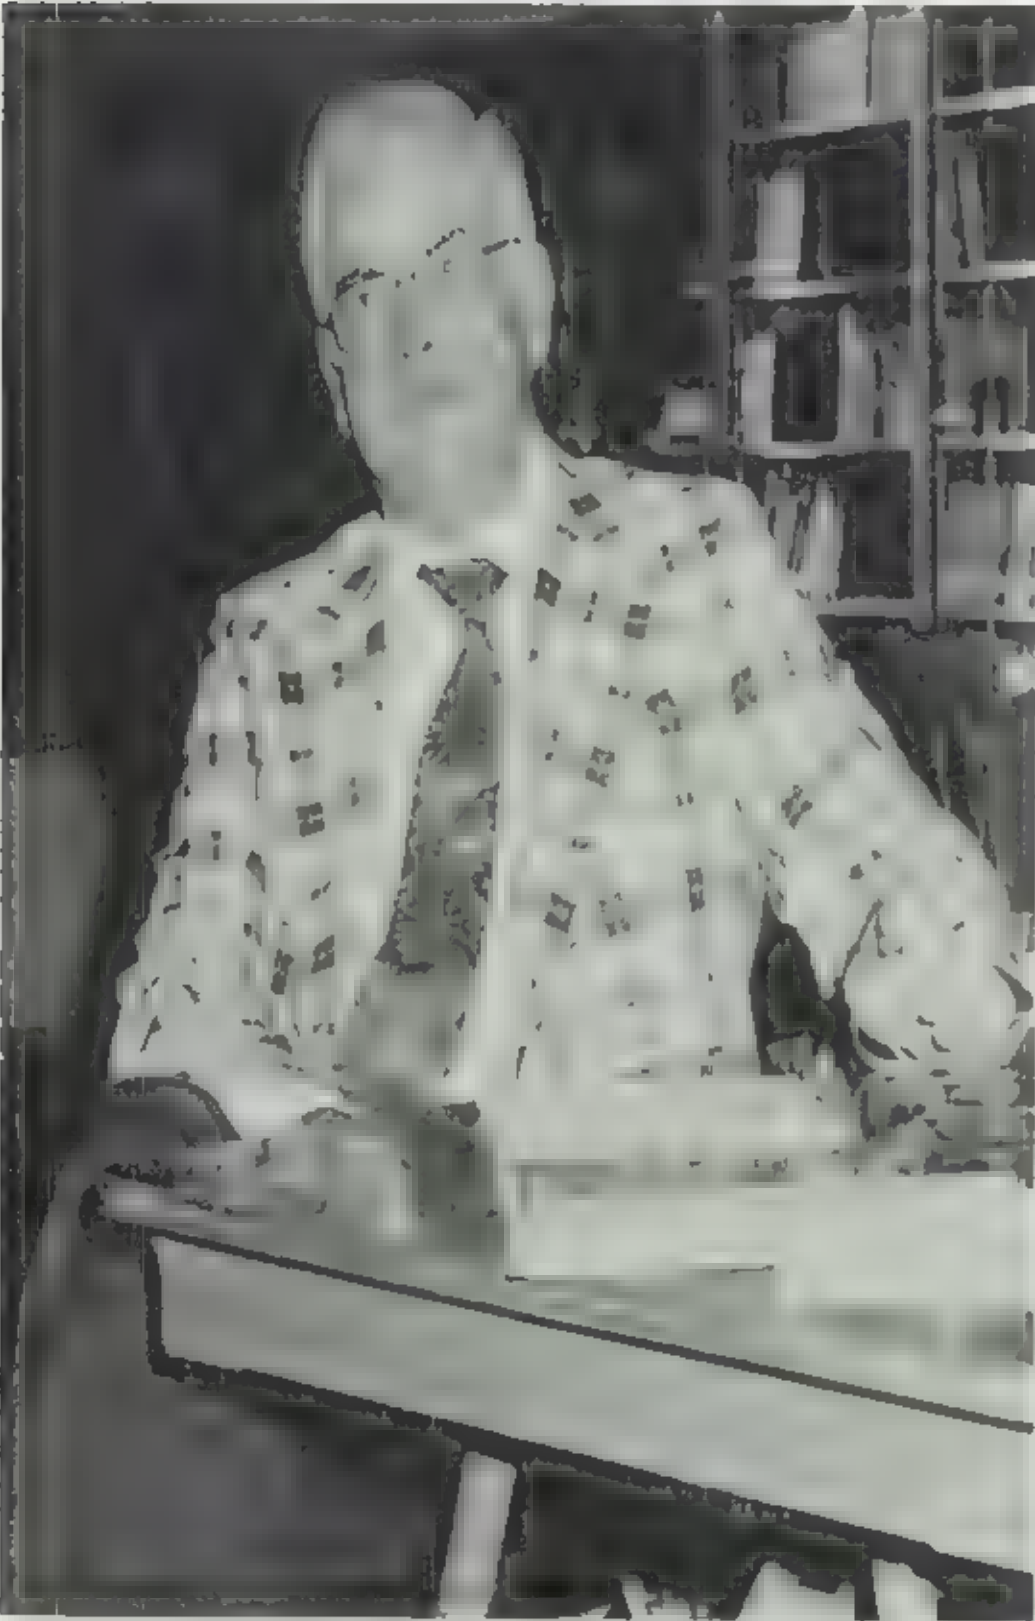

DR. MAX ABBOTT, Superintendent of City Schools

MR. ZOLLY BOWDEN, the assistant superintendent in charge of business, manages the cafeteria program, supervises the purchasing of equipment for the schools, and directs the building and maintaining of school plants and grounds. Mr. Bowden earned his master's degree at UNC after graduating from Elon College

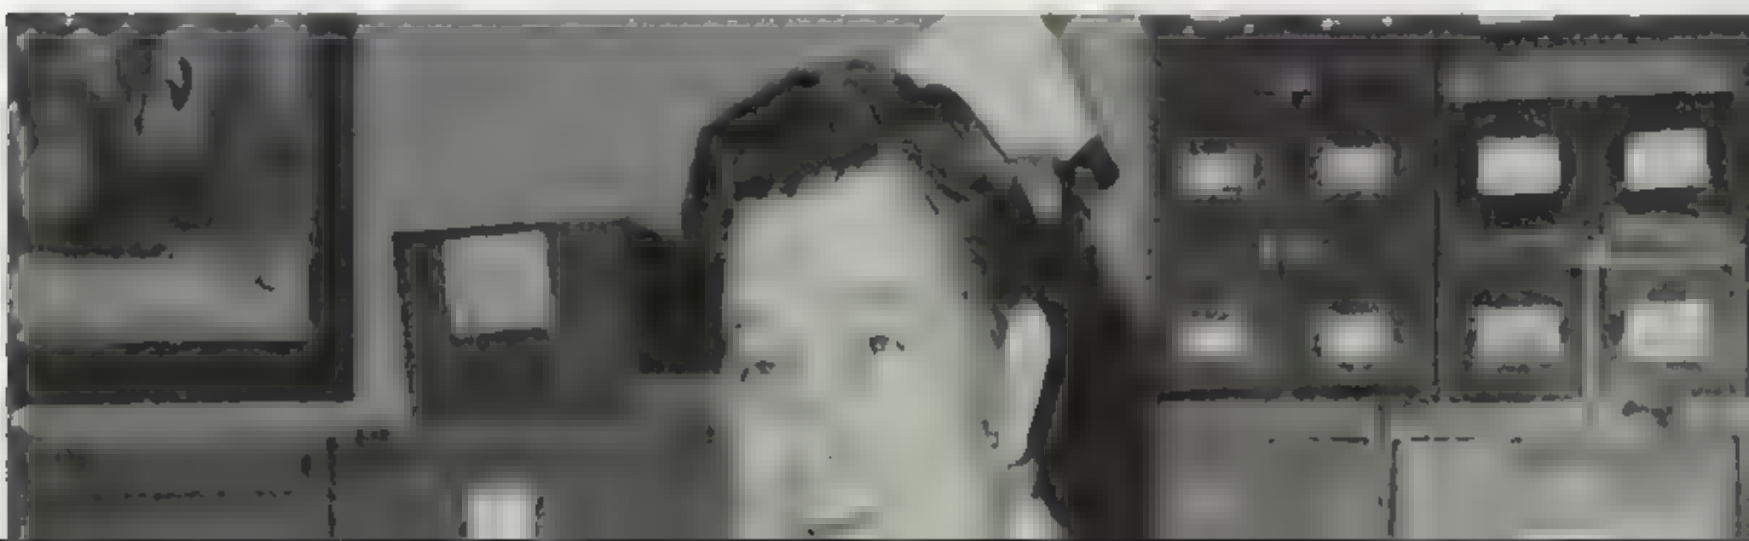

Principal Leads Student Body

As Terry Sanford's major link to the Board of Education, Mr. John T. Sasser exemplifies strong leadership and serves as a model for all at FTS. While administering faculty and students, Mr. Sasser has managed to lead our school to a respected state-wide reputation. For the past seventeen years, he has been interested in the development of the student and has shown this through his fine leadership, concern, and enthusiastic appearance at school activities.

Aside from Mr. Sasser's responsibilities to each student, he delivers the routine daily announcements, presides over faculty meetings, coordinates faculty duties, and holds conferences.

Mr. Sasser welcomes Freshmen and Sophomores to Terry Sanford.

Secretaries Serve Faculty, Students

Miriam Carter—the school treasurer

As the school treasurer, Mrs. Carter handles the financial accounts for the school, students, and clubs.

Mrs. Bullard, the clinic secretary, compiles the absentee reports, makes attendance calls, and aids students who become ill at school.

Mrs. Byrd serves as the school clerk and receptionist. She also helps with other various office tasks.

Aside from serving as the school registrar, Mrs. Johnson supervises cumulative folders, schedules adjustments, and acquaints new students with the everyday life at FTS.

Mrs. Cain acts as Mr. Sasser's personal secretary. She also assists students and visitors in the main office.

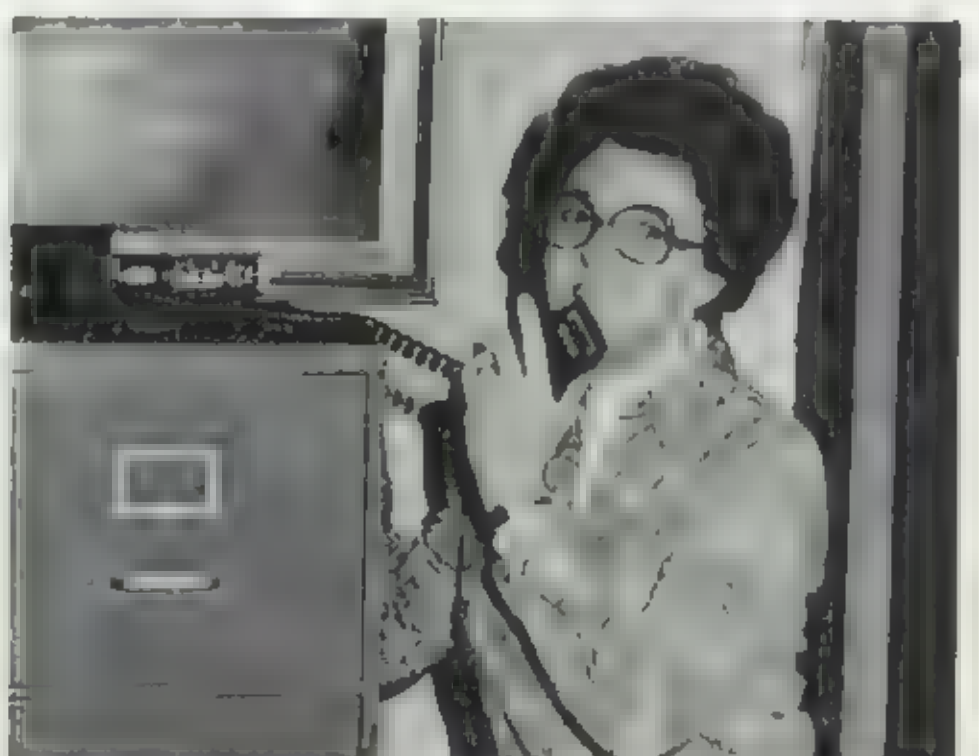

Sara Bullard—clinic secretary

Dorothy Byrd—clerk and receptionist

Margaret Johnson—the school registrar.

Ann Cain—secretary

Mr. Warren and Deans Offer Guidance

To many Terry Sanford students, the Dean's Office has become a familiar locality where friendly but firm advice is given or legitimate penalties are assigned.

Mr. Percy Warren, the Assistant Principal, holds conferences with parents and students, organizes the daily detention hall, and directs lunch traffic. He also serves as the Driver Education Coordinator for Terry Sanford.

Mr. Melvin Pierce and Mr. McKinley Hall, the Administrative Assistants, counsel students and administer disciplinary action. Mr. Hall also handles students' fees and locker problems, while Mr. Pierce is in charge of the student bus drivers and buses.

Mrs. Helen Mask and Mrs. Nancy Blackmon assist with holding conferences, excusing absences and tardies, signing late passes, and compiling the daily attendance records.

English Department Promotes

Along with reviewing the basic rules for grammar, the Terry Sanford English Department also reviews composition and presents various interpretations of English and American literature.

Freshman English focuses on Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet, with strong emphasis on proper grammar. Sophomore English, along with basic grammar skills, center on major literary forms—short stories, poetry, novels, and the play Julius Caesar. The Junior year is spent in exploration of American literature which ranges from Arthur Miller's The Crucible to Thoreau's Walden. Senior English specializes in English literature with emphasis on Chaucer and Shakespeare. It also concentrates heavily on developing skills in composition.

Aside from contests and self-expression opportunities, special assemblies are usually offered for the enrichment of English learning.

"To reach the port of heaven we must sail, sometimes with the wind and sometimes against it—but we must sail, not drift or lie at anchor."

Oliver Wendell Holmes

Benetta, Keep your pants On For me!

You are a very special person to me and don't ever forget that. When I first came to Terry Sanford I had no idea of meeting anyone like you. You have been an inspiration to me more than anyone else. Some of the things that you have told me this year have made me really think seriously about our relationship and still sometimes I wonder what I can do to make you believe when you go off to college there's one thing I want to say for me and that's keep in touch. Remember while you are telling everyone to be nice of me just make sure you ^{are} great yourself. I'll always be thinking of you and hope you can do the same.

Deep down I know I can't do it all but I can't take the place of you. I know I can't be like you but I don't think it is. Remember you don't want to be heartbroken and neither do I, so remember I really can't say goodbye. You! Wish you could see me next year here, making my grand debut.
Love Always And forever ~~Always~~ Always x x x

Heyday honey! It's almost over! We've come through some rough times but I want

 Please come visit me next

Love,
Jeff

Benetta,
 you have truly brought me much joy this year in my classroom - in fact, I looked forward to seeing you every day and really missed you the first days that you were absent. Thank you for the wonderful service you have given the school, for most of all, thank you for being a lovely little lady.
 Love,
 Miss Williams

Benetta,
 One of the nicest young ladies I have ever met. I'm going to miss you next year and you won't even have a next year. Stay as sweet as you are and you won't have any trouble. Love,
 Robert Williams

Benetta,
 I have one question for you, "who is Benetta?" If you can't answer that I think that I will try. You are to me a very silly person (kidding). You are a very special person to all people you are around. You seem to reach out and help others in their times of need. You are intelligent, witty, devoted, a leader, sometimes a follower, and never a fool. So, at Michigan State, I want you to not make a fool of my words and achieve to the highest of my dreams and to the best of ~~your~~ ^{my} ability. For I know your main ambition in this world is to be successful and I know you'll succeed.

Benetta,
 what can we say to a person like yourself. You are indeed an wonderful person. Life is like a highway with many curves. Benetta, as we've told you many times, there will be many things that you desired but didn't receive. But don't worry about things like that because you know how very smart you are. We consider you really very fortunate to have you. Love,
 Benetta

Benetta,
 I chose this square because I am very plain compared to you. I wish I had your friendliness and smarts. Don't go too wild in college next year, you need a rest from your senior year. I'll miss you next year; I'll have nobody to break with.
 Love,
 Jeff Cameron

Benetta,
 Next year will be in 2 different times zones and that's just as bad as being on two opposite sides of the world. He won't be able to call or fuss each other out but I will remember and I hope you all our rules for a happy life. I know I'm going to miss the hell out of you but I am proud that you are going ~~to~~ far. When you're alone remember the cracks we made on the loony walks we took on the park or soe soe car, it'll make you laugh cause right now even I can't believe some of the crazy things we did. Good Luck Ben, Take care of yourself. Remember me always.
 your Big Sister
